6. If there are no issues with the finance, the registration operation starts. In case you have any questions about the courses or the number of credit hours, you may ask your academic advisor.

To register courses, go to the "Program of Study" by clicking the link shown below.

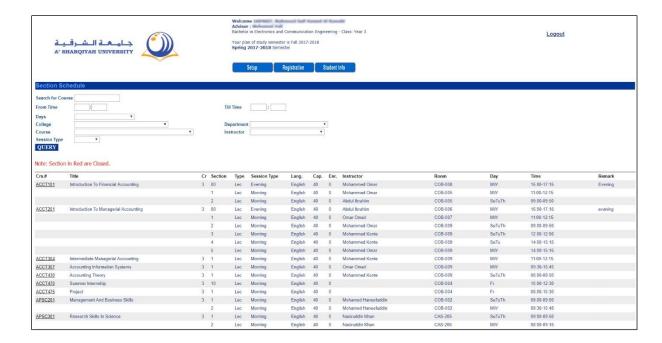

When you choose courses, make sure that you took the course prerequisites (if any). The demonstration below may be helpful.

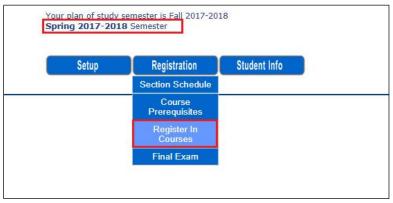

After making sure you have met the course mandatory prerequisites, go to the list of the courses and their sections as demonstrated below.

7. Now, before you go to the final step, you must choose the section for each course and its time. Make sure there is no time clash among the courses you have chosen. You should also make sure that the sections you have chosen are not closed (full). The following demonstration may be helpful.

8. To access the registration link, see the demonstration below.

9. In case any of these messages appear:

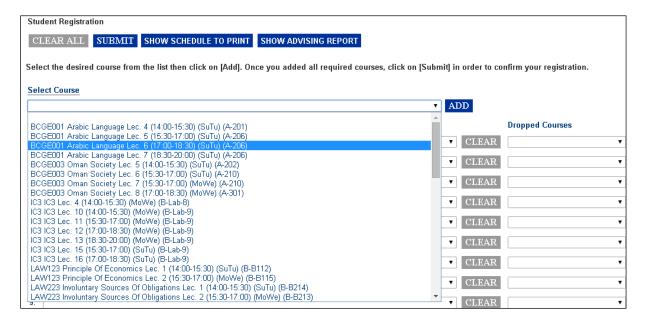

"Registration time is not verified for this student – read only."

Online registration not allowed.

The section closed, you cannot proceed.

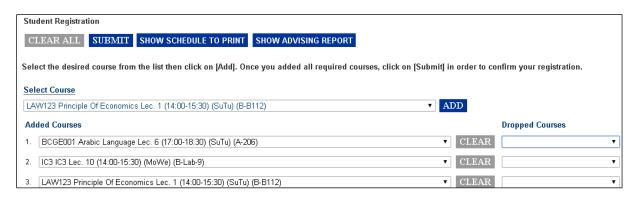

First: Make sure you are registering on the date assigned according to the academic department and college-joining year as posted on the college's web site.

Second: Make sure that you select the current semester on your own page, or change the semester as follows:

10. You can select the required courses. You can select any of the courses on the list, as they are all eligible. The closed sections and the courses whose prerequisites are not met will not appear on the list.

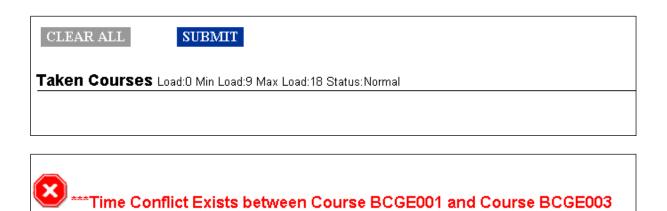

In case a course does not appear on the list, there may be the possibility that:

- The course has a prerequisite, which has not been met (check the program of study).
- The section is closed /full (check course schedule).
- The course not offered this semester (check course schedule).

After selecting the required courses, the page must be as follows:
